

Content management for every enterprise

Cross-industry solutions with DocuShare

If your business is looking for ways to streamline your business processes, Fuji Xerox DocuShare platform can help you manage your document-centric challenges. It is an affordable platform that takes care of archival and storage, retrieval, sharing, content routing and even lifecycle management.

Begin your digital transformation with one department, automate your business processes, and expand that into other departments and eventually into your entire workplace.

DocuShare workflow can be customised to address different business needs
